Shri D.S.Mhaispurkar, A.P.P. for respondent State.

CORAM: S.B.MHASE AND
Smt.NISHITA MHATRE JJ.
5th December,2006

P.C.

1. Learned Counsel for the petitioner is absent.

2. The proceedings pending before the Competent Authority respondent no.2 are in respect of the transfer of property namely flat of MHADA in the name of son of respondent no.3. In the said proceedings naturally the petitioner will have an opportunity of addressing the said authority. We find that the dispute between the parties is a civil dispute and there is nothing to be enquired into through the criminal machinery. Unnecessarily the criminal machinery is tried to be set in motion. We refrain to interfere with the pertition. Petition is rejected.
